With respect to site discipline, life skills and self-management skills are reinforced throughout the year in all classrooms. The Lone Tree staff is deeply committed to providing and maintaining a strong positive reinforcement program for students which is related to the discipline policy for students. We believe that all students have the right to a quality education. We firmly believe that each student has the right to attend school where they can learn and play in a positive, safe, threat-free environment.

Discipline is education that enables students to make appropriate choices in a climate of respect, warmth and support, beginning with clear, concise limits and consistent follow-up and consequences. Appropriate discipline builds character and fosters the development of strong academic skills. During the 2014-15 school year, a total of 7 student suspensions occurred.

For the past three years, and continuing this year, a School Counselor is available three days per week. Counseling services are provided to students referred by parents or staff due to concerns regarding educationally-related issues such as student adjustment, self-esteem, and emotional health. The School Counselor, along with the Family Resource Center Staff, provide support services of social groups and the reinforcement of positive choices. The Family Resource Center was reconfigured for the 2012-13 school year with the continuation of a Coordinator and the continuation of two part-time Lifeskills Para-educators.

A continuum of interventions is in place to promote academic achievement of at risk students as follows:

General Education

- School wide homogeneous ability groupings for reading.
- Pre-teaching and re-teaching of standards to at risk students.
- In K-1st grade, para-educators provide tutoring.

Early Intervention

- Special Education teachers with para-educator support provide small group instruction to groups of at risk students to accelerate achievement and prevent students from falling farther behind.

After School Instruction

- At risk students receive explicit instruction in math and or reading to support standards mastery. All trimester intervention instruction is assessment driven.
- GATE/Enrichment is offered as an after school program for 4th and 5th grades.

Life Skills instructor

- A para-educator supports student alternatives to inappropriate behavior and works with students who, due to behavior and inattention, require individualized instruction. Alternative educational environments are provided for students who need modified instruction or assistance for personal best.

Renaissance Program

- 2016-17 marks the eighth year that Lone Tree School has participated in a theme-based incentive program for students. The program is enhanced with growth each passing year. We started a leadership club for 4th/5th grade students in 2010-11. This program doubled in size for 2011-12 and continues to evolve and expand. All campus students work towards established curricular and behavioral goals throughout the year. Student achievement is celebrated in Renaissance Rallies (parents invited), through motivation, recognition field trips, and through campus activities. The Renaissance program focus is to build community spirit, celebrate attendance, academics and positive behavior actions.

During trimester grade level meetings, teachers plan interventions to accelerate academic achievement of at-risk students. All student progress is monitored yearly on the Response to Intervention (RTI) form. Student progress on identified interventions will be monitored and discussed at trimester grade level meetings. Based on assessment, students are also referred to the After School Academic Intervention (AI). Instruction in the AI program is based on assessment results and instruction targets standards students did not master in the previous trimester. When a student has received an ongoing, intensive and systematic program of explicit instruction and does not demonstrate accelerated academic growth it may be appropriate to consider a psycho-educational assessment. Students are also referred for the Early Intervention (EI) model, where students receive intensive instruction through the Learning Center for specific standards or skills and falls under the Response to Intervention model. Students with identified special education needs are included in a general education classroom. Modified instruction from the classroom teacher is available in the general education classroom. Specialized instruction is available through the Learning Center staff as specified in the student's IEP.

Staff Development

Staff meetings are scheduled this year with the focus for teachers to review grade level progress towards standards as well as individual student achievement. Time will also be allotted to discuss classroom response to intervention checklists. Issues related to appropriate implementation of the English Language Arts and Math curriculum are also discussed. Common Core standards were implemented for 2013-14 with discussions for correlation to lesson planning and instruction. For 2016-17, our staff is working collaboratively for the further development of ELA intensive instruction. During these meetings, student placements in the homogeneous reading groups are also reviewed and adjusted if necessary.

Each year the district offers a variety of staff development opportunities targeting instructional skills and research based practices in the teaching of reading and math. The district will provide ongoing training in the use of the Accelerated Reader and Accelerated Math programs along with our ever growing technology development as it pertains to student academic enrichment; utilizing tools within our adopted curriculum and supplemental (i.e. Moby Max). We continue our work with elements from Step Up to Writing/Lucy Calkins methods for writing instruction.

As of 2012-13, all 2nd – 8th grade classrooms in the district report through the Aeries system and open to parents to view online by the start of the second trimester. All K – 8th grade classrooms in our district process the report cards directly through Aeries. All report cards are standards-based and have received grade-level teacher review and input.

ANALYSIS OF CURRENT EDUCATIONAL PRACTICE

The following statements characterize educational practice at this school:

1. Alignment of curriculum, instruction and materials to content and performance standards: At each grade level in the district, teachers used the state content area standards in reading and math to identify essential standards. Student instruction, assessment and promotion are based on mastery of these essential standards. State adopted curriculums are used at Lone Tree School with supplemental Common Core materials. McGraw Hill, My Math, was adopted for implementation in 2015/16. For 2016/17, our District is in an adoption process for ELA with Open Court as our previous adoption. Our curriculums are standards based and utilize an explicit research based sequence of instruction. The core instructional materials to be used with the adoptions were purchased through district textbook funds and are used within each classroom. Each year textbook funds are used to expand standards based materials.
 2. Availability of standards-based instructional materials appropriate to all student groups: The ELA and math materials in place in the classrooms incorporate social studies and science into their instructional activities throughout the year. As a result, the vocabulary and content incorporate diversity and are thus of interest to an ethnically diverse student population. In addition, the Scott Foresman Social Science curriculum and Houghton Mifflin Science curriculum have EL components, as well as leveled readers and computer based programs which make it accessible to all students in a classroom. At Lone Tree, approximately 39% are socio-economically disadvantaged. All students benefit from curriculum that is repetitious, explicit and sequential (i.e. small steps build progressively). Open Court with supplemental Common Core ELA curricular materials, McGraw-Hill, Scott Foresman, and Houghton Mifflin have these features built into their activities, materials and instructional sequence.
 3. Alignment of staff development to standards, assessed student performance and professional needs:
Staff development focuses on these areas:
 - Research based instructional techniques: Essential Instructional Skills will continue with staff and administrative communication. Input sessions and classroom walk-through observations identify and expand appropriate application of this information. Walk through observations will be followed up by reflective conferences to further discuss and elaborate on instruction.

- Content specific instructional techniques: Through our publishers, reading and math specific staff development sessions are available to teachers on a yearly basis through webcasts. Additionally, teachers have been provided with training in the use of Accelerated Reader and Math programs, Read Naturally, SIPPS, Step Up to Writing, Illuminate and Moby Max. Staff development support of Common Core materials, technology to further develop student engagement and staff planning meetings to develop lesson plans that are standards driven are part of our annual planning.

4. Services provided by the regular program to enable under-performing students to meet standards: Within the regular classroom, the teacher will provide daily interventions for students who have not mastered the standards with whole group and small group instruction alone. Based on ongoing assessments, small group workshops pre-teach and re-teach standards. Additionally, for one half hour daily, the students receive intensive reading instruction in school wide homogeneous ability groups. The curriculum for the intervention groups includes a state adopted intervention program, John Shefelbine's Systematic Instruction in Phonics and Phonemic Awareness (SIPPs), Early Reading Intervention (ERI), and/or Reading Mastery. The mid-level groups may be working with Read Naturally or Accelerated Reader Power Lessons to better develop comprehension strategies, and the high-level groups will be working with Accelerated Reader Power Lessons. Additionally, the Common Core connectivity to integrating social science and science with reading instruction is in place. Step Up to Writing Program/Lucy Calkins techniques are in place for writing in each grade level. In each classroom, a bank of computers makes it possible to supplement and reinforce instruction with additional practice with all 3rd – 5th grade students accessing 1 to 1 laptop devices. Software is available for reading and math practice as well as English Language Development. Additionally, our technology infrastructure has been updated to allow each classroom to access Moby Max, Accelerated Reader and Math, Math Facts, Harcourt Math, and Read Naturally programs. In the kindergarten and first grade classrooms, age appropriate software is available in the areas of reading, math, English Language Development, auditory processing and cognitive development. The regular use of the computer station to supplement instruction throughout the day allows the teacher to incorporate smaller group instruction at these grade levels.

5. Services provided by categorical funds to enable under-performing students to meet standards: Special Education: Educational assessments are provided for those students who have received a variety of general education and specialized interventions and continue to experience academic failure. The special education program also provides intervention for identified special education students as prescribed in their IEPs. Early Intervention/Response to Intervention: Interventions are available through specially structured groups. Small group instruction is available to at-risk students who have not mastered grade level standards as a result of general education instruction and intervention. The learning center also provides intervention to at-risk students in need of small group instruction. This service is provided as a pre-referral intervention and is intended to be a timely means of preventing children from falling irreparably behind. This early intervention service is utilized after daily general education small group instruction has been insufficient to accelerate progress towards standards. K-1st Intervention program: Achieving our goal of having every child at grade level in reading and math requires that no child falls behind in the beginning. Therefore, additional resources are applied at the K-1st grade levels to accelerate and support learning of our at-risk students. A half-day para-educator is in place within each kindergarten and 1st grade classroom. Para-educators provide small group and individual instruction to at-risk students in addition to providing supplemental math and reading instruction during center time. A special education aide provides reading intervention to the most at-risk kindergartener’s using Scott Foresman’s research based ERI program, SIPPS, or Reading Mastery. After School Program: The after school program provides homework support, enrichment activities, and specific remedial academic instruction in the areas of reading and math.

6. Use of state and local assessments to modify instruction and improve student achievement: A variety of assessments are available to guide instruction.
- RTI assessments with pre and post tests for data collection following specific standard instruction for ELA.
 - Kindergarten pre and post standards based assessment.
 - Trimester Kindergarten through 5th grade Standards Based Report Card.
 - Data from trimester accountability assessments in reading and math (STAR Early Literacy, STAR Reading, STAR Math) is compiled and evaluated at a staff meeting for each classroom, grade level and for the whole school. Based on this, needs are identified and an action plan is developed. Also, students performing at far below, below basic, and basic levels are identified, goals made, and interventions are put into place.
 - Star Literacy/BPT/SORT reading fluency scores are obtained each trimester and are used to group students for reading.
 - CELDT testing is administered to all new second language students for whom assessment results are not available and to all English Learners to determine their English proficiency and to measure their progress toward becoming fluent English proficient.
 - State testing, CAASPP, is administered annually to all students in 3rd – 5th grades with science in addition for 5th grade students. This information is used to identify areas of for growth in the site program to create an action plan for site program improvement.

7. Number and percentage of teachers in academic areas experiencing low student performance: At Lone Tree School 95% of the teachers are fully credentialed and have a CLAD or English Language Development equivalent requirements met. All grade levels and student sub-groups have experienced systematic progress towards academic goals, in addition to meeting API and AYP goals in the past. Lone Tree has had an API of over 800 for the past 8 years of CST testing. For 2016/17 CAASPP (California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress) with the following results:

	4 th	9%	30%	44%	16%
	5 th	27%	19%	32%	22%

8. Family, school, district, and community resources available to assist these students: As a District we schedule events, such as intergenerational literacy activities to socio-economically challenged families. These include English Language Development meetings held for our District centrally located at the Wheatland Elementary School site. We have a Family Resource Center that supports activities on campus. The Lone Tree School Family Resource Center hosts activities for parents to get information about the area, and opportunities for parents to come to school for family activities (i.e. Yellow Ribbon Club). We hold events annually to increase family connection to school (i.e. book fairs, parent/student dance, fall carnival, Saturday school). We support students through a myriad of programs to involve students, support specific basic needs for social connection, and encourage positive self-esteem (i.e. Yellow Ribbon Club, Recycling Club, Renaissance Leadership program, school counselor skill groups in the areas of school skills, friendship, and emotional response awareness). Our excellent volunteer parents are involved with campus fundraisers to provide opportunities for field trip experiences for students, assistance in the classrooms with projects and curriculum support (i.e. Accelerated Math tutoring), physical activity enhancements for students (i.e. Jump for Heart), and field trip chaperones. In 2011-12, Team Lone Tree Parent Volunteer (TLTV) network was created and managed by a parent volunteer. This has refined the communication process for volunteers and increased awareness of activities and a myriad of participatory opportunities for families. TLTV has grown since inception and is supported by school administration communication. Lone Tree houses a State Preschool program. Sunset Housing and Bear River Apartments offer affordable housing within the Wheatland city limits. The military base offers a Family Support service which provides counseling, respite, and parent education classes. The military base also has a variety of medical and community resources for military families. Other families are limited by Wheatland and Smartsville's geographic isolation and the lack of affordable transportation.
9. School, district and community barriers to improvements in student achievement: The majority of our families are military. This creates a concern because of high transition rates. Our student population is in constant in-flux and children transfer in from numerous other states, as well as countries. This poses a problem because of inconsistencies in expectations and standards in other locations. Also, many families become "single" families because of military deployments. This causes many emotional concerns for children, as well as parents, especially in this time of war overseas. Some of our non-military families have difficulty participating in and fully supporting their children's education due to limited access to medical and community resources, lack of public transportation and poverty. Additionally, there is a small percentage of students impacted by parental drug abuse, poor nutrition, inappropriate discipline, physical abuse and transience.
10. Limitations of the current program to enable under-performing students to meet standards: The greatest limitations are time and finances for adequate planning, staffing, training and supervision. Enabling under-performing students to meet standards requires regular planning time together as a staff to review assessment results and plan individual student programs.

It requires additional personnel to provide the individualized and small group instruction that under-performing students require. It requires staff development to ensure that all staff are adequately trained using content specific instructional techniques that are grounded in research. It requires supervision to ensure that application of skills is consistently applied within the classrooms. These areas are all addressed in our current school plan; however, the time and finances to carry out all aspects of the plan are an ongoing issue.

Form A: Planned Improvements in Student Performance

The School Site Council has analyzed the academic performance of all student groups and has considered the effectiveness of key elements of the instructional program for students failing to meet academic performance index and adequate yearly progress growth targets. As a result, it has adopted the following school goals, related actions, and expenditures to raise the academic performance of students not yet meeting state standards:

LEA GOAL: Goal #1: All students will reach high standards, at standard nearly met to standard exceeded in reading and mathematics by the end of the 2016-17 school year. All subgroups will demonstrate adequate yearly progress towards attaining proficiency.

SCHOOL GOAL: For 2016/17, reduce our %standard not met by half.

Year	Grade Level	%Standard Exceeded	% Standard Met	%Standard Nearly Met	%Standard Not Met
2015-16 ELA	3 rd	13%	27%	34%	26% (GOAL 13%)
	4 th	11%	27%	34%	27% (GOAL 14%)
	5 th	32%	32%	21%	15% (GOAL 8%)
2015-16 Math	3 rd	7%	34%	27%	29% (GOAL 15%)
	4 th	9%	39%	39%	14% (GOAL 7%)
	5 th	27%	21%	28%	26% (GOAL 13%)

What data did you use to form this goal?

Lone Tree School believes that all students should test at standard nearly met or exceeded in mathematics and ELA by the end of the 2016-17 testing cycle.

What were the findings from the analysis of this data?

3rd – 5th grade students are on 1 to 1 technology devices and K – 2nd grade students have doubled lab computer access built into the schedule. Academic interventions, including specific focus to data driven standard specific interventions in 6 week cycles for ELA are in implementation for 2016/17.

How will the school evaluate the progress of this goal?

Evaluation will be completed through the STAR reader and STAR math programs to track individual student growth through the year, along with RTI data assessments that will be given at intervals during the year. STAR will be administered to start the year and repeated each trimester.

STRATEGY: During the 2016-17 school will continue the school-wide reading intervention program and math support program as well as targeted early identification of missing skills to develop the skills of struggling students to reach the school goal of 100% of students being proficient or advanced in math and ELA. To meet the technology demands of the test, the school will offer one to one tablets for all 3rd - 5th grade students to practice the technical skills required in the test.

As a result, it has adopted the following school goals, related actions, and expenditures to raise the academic performance of students not yet meeting state standards:

LEA GOAL: Goal #3 Lone Tree administration and staff will provide all students access to an educational enrichment program (Renaissance) to reinforce the importance of good attendance, maintain high levels of student engagement and motivation and improve student conflict and resolution skills.

SCHOOL GOAL: During the 2016-17 school year, staff will use behavior interventions and educational enrichment programs to maximize student learning and motivation in all academic subjects.

What data did you use to form this goal?	What were the findings from the analysis of this data?	How will the school evaluate the progress of this goal?
School-wide data collection in academics, behavior and attendance was gathered to develop a plan to encourage maximum student motivation.	Lone Tree is part of the district adopted Renaissance program for the development and enrichment of school culture. During the use of Renaissance, student achievement and motivation has improved. We implemented ROCK in 2009 and transformed to join the District program of Renaissance in 2014.	The school will evaluate the progress in these areas through reports gathered at the end of each trimester.

STRATEGY: During the 2015-2016 school year, Lone Tree staff will identify areas of importance for student success and teach students the skill necessary to be successful in each category. Students who achieve their goals will be honored at the trimester Renaissance Rally.

Form A: Planned Improvements in Student Performance

The School Site Council has analyzed the academic performance of all student groups and has considered the effectiveness of key elements of the instructional program for students failing to meet academic performance index and adequate yearly progress growth targets. As a result, it has adopted the following school goals, related actions, and expenditures to raise the academic performance of students not yet meeting state standards:

LEA GOAL: State Testing Administered by Computer: Students will show the academic and technological skills to achieve proficiency on the state examination with 100% of students testing in the proficient to advanced range based on state reporting.

SCHOOL GOAL: Students will complete technology support programs to support their understanding of the state test technological requirements, including practice methods available through the state for 100% student participation in the CAASPP 3rd – 5th grades.

What data did you use to form this goal?	What were the findings from the analysis of this data?	How will the school evaluate the progress of this goal?
Through observations, we have found that keyboarding skills and ease need to be more fluid for students to be able to focus their attention the content questions and not the mechanics of navigating the assessments.	Based on observation, it was determined that most students (approximately 80%) were prepared for the technological requirements of the state exam, but struggled with understanding the requirements for proficiency in their answers as they had previously used a multiple choice model of examination.	Student performance on interactive typing skill training will be monitored along with student use of curricular programs (i.e Moby Max) that require similar navigation process as state testing and in 21st century life skills for navigation through many aspects as students develop (job application, online ordering, banking, etc.) The progress of this goal will be based on the state test administered in late April to early May. This data will be collected and compared with the results of the test administered this year to evaluate progress towards student preparation for technology.

STRATEGY: The district adopted technology plan developed by administrators will be distributed to staff and proper training will be administered to staff members unfamiliar/uncomfortable with their knowledge on a particular program. Trainings will target specific areas of need to help teachers develop a mastery of technological programs.
